Fall 2018

Building Greater Understanding about Native American History: Decolonizing the Classroom

Thursday, October 4
4:00– 6:30 PM

Teachers will learn the historical context and impact of the shared history non-Native communities have with Indigenous peoples in New Jersey, both past and present. Videos featuring contemporary Native American Chiefs will be shown. Resource lists, including recommended websites and classroom activity ideas will provide teachers with the facts and tools to teach the history of Native Americans, Christopher Columbus, and the first Thanksgiving.

Presented by Arla Patch, with support from the New Jersey Council for the Humanities and Kidsbridge Tolerance Center

Spotlight on Contemporary Antisemitism

Wednesday, November 14
4:00– 6:30 PM

How do we help students understand antisemitism didn't start or end with the Holocaust, and what do they need to know to recognize and stand up to antisemitism today? Teachers will explore materials to support effective teaching of contemporary antisemitism, its global reach, and its expression in the form of hate speech, violence, denial, and distortion of the Holocaust.

Presented by Echoes and Reflections, a joint program of the Anti-Defamation League, USC Shoah Foundation, and Yad Vashem

Programs are free, and meet at 354 Quaker Road, Princeton
